

Opening : Sr. Software Developer

Location : Norwalk, CT

Requirements : Master's degree in Technology Management or related/equivalent plus 1 year of experience as a Data Analyst or related.

Responsibilities :

- Involved in end to end Software Development Life Cycle that includes design, development, testing, implementation, and application support. Confer with other departments to obtain information on limitations, capabilities, performance requirements and interfaces for system design projects.
- Develop or direct software system testing or validation procedures, programming, or documentation.
- Monitor functioning of equipment to ensure system operates in conformance with specifications.
- Review & alter programs to increase operating efficiency/adapt to new requirements utilizing software platforms. Write computer programs to store, locate, & retrieve specific documents, data, & information.
- Generate customized ad-hoc reports and dashboards for executives and senior management team using Excel and Tableau.
- Analyze business models and formulated KPI reports and dashboards that improve business productivity for clients.
- Design customized user interactive dashboards using Tableau to analyze trends which help clients to make impactful business decision.
- Improve dashboard efficiency and performance by optimizing internal processes and re-engineering methods to further automate data preparation.
- Design and develop databases, tables, views and stored procedures in MYSQL, PostgreSQL for efficient data storage and mining.

THIS POSITION IS ELIGIBLE FOR THE INCENTIVES OFFERED UNDER POTOO SOLUTIONS' EMPLOYEE REFERRAL PROGRAM

To apply : Resumes to kelly.larue@potoosolutions.com.