

Opening : Sr. Data Analyst

Location : Norwalk, CT

Requirements : Master's degree in Technology Management or related/equivalent plus 2 years of experience as a Data Analyst, Engineer, or related.

Responsibilities : Gather and maintain large datasets related to e-commerce and market research. Design and develop databases, tables, views and stored procedures in MYSQL, PostgreSQL for efficient data storage and mining. Work with data structures and metadata to ensure consistency, security, and accessibility. Develop and improve existing data collection systems and create new processes, programs to accurately input and store critical data. Work with ETL tools like SSIS, SSRS to collect, organize, analyze, and disseminate complex data with attention to detail and accuracy. Monitor cloud analytic data with AWS to ensure smooth execution of ETL jobs. Use Python scripts to scrape e-commerce data from various websites and store into database. Use Tableau Prep Builder to cleanse, aggregate, merge and prepare their data for analysis. Design customized user interactive dashboards using Tableau to analyze trends which help clients to make impactful business decision. Improve dashboard efficiency and performance by optimizing internal processes and re-engineering methods to further automate data preparation. Generate customized ad-hoc reports and dashboards for executives and senior management team using Excel and Tableau. Analyze business models and formulated KPI reports and dashboards that improved business productivity for clients.

THIS POSITION IS ELIGIBLE FOR THE INCENTIVES OFFERED UNDER POTOO SOLUTIONS' EMPLOYEE REFERRAL PROGRAM

To apply : Resumes to kelly.larue@potoosolutions.com.